

Join OHC Today

Let's work together to protect southeast Indiana's natural heritage for generations to come.

If you share a vision of protection Indiana's resources and special places, we invite you to join OHC.

Your membership protects natural resources by:

- Funding land acquisitions.
- Protecting resources on our conservation easements and properties.
- Providing stewardship on our more than 700 protected acres, including tree plantings, invasive species control, and much more.
- Educating the public about southeastern Indiana's special places and the importance of conservation.
